The Title Reflects the Contents:

The entire book is written in an easy and fun-to-read conversational format. 150 working professionals have contributed to this 600 page, large 8 1/2” x 11” format book. Each page is packed with critical information for anyone trying to decide what profession to pursue. Learn from those who have gone before: get all of the wisdom with none of the pain. You will never find a better deal than this.

Synopsis:

Many people struggle with the “What should I do?” question. Conversations: Find Your Niche! is designed to help them find a good answer. It also teaches the reader how to exercise due diligence when dealing with a perplexing question. To that end, Conversations: Find Your Niche! has three distinct sections offering a comprehensive suite of tools, information and resources.

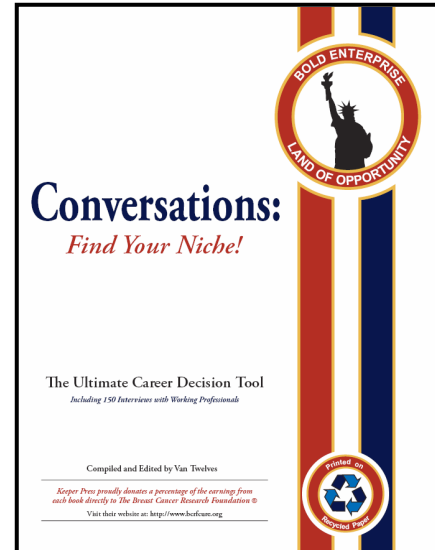

The first section provides a research roadmap including guided exercises focused on helping readers tease out their personal values, interests and talents. Those talents are linked to candidate professions. The most interesting professions are subjected to a careful evaluation process leading to an informed, confident decision.

The second section consists of 150 work life interviews with professionals across the spectrum of career fields. These interviews are condensed job shadowing experiences that expose the reader to new workplace insights and experiences.

The third section is an invaluable collection of appendices containing critical career information and hard to find resources designed to save you months of research.
